To receive most types of financial aid, students must be United States citizens, U.S. nationals, or eligible non-citizens. Citizens of the Freely Associated States are eligible for some types of financial aid as well. AB540-eligible undergraduates awarded a California Dream Grant may be considered for limited university funding. If you have been asked to submit documentation of your status, and you are not a U.S. citizen, please submit this completed form with a copy of your documentation. Please review the acceptable documentation below. We cannot accept documentation with expiration dates prior to the start of the academic year. All documentation will be submitted by USC to the Department of Homeland Security for confirmation. If you are a U.S. citizen, contact the Social Security Administration (SSA) at www.ssa.gov to update your citizenship status, if you have not already done so.
